Power of Truth, Volume 12 CD

Our long-awaited volume 12 in our Power of Truth CD series, featuring remastered speeches and broadcasts by Dr. William Pierce, will be available for sale in the first week or so of March. This brings to 240 the number of broadcasts and speeches in this series. The audio quality of the new remastered recordings is remarkably good; they are based on the original master tape recordings, not the highly compressed early digital files of past versions; some are digitized here for the very first time. Visit cosmotheistchurch.org/product-category/cds/ to check availability and to order, or write to our postal address above.

Cosmotheist Books

In addition to the latest Power of Truth CD we are also adding six new book titles to our bookstore this month, including two more in the young people's Horatio Hornblower sea adventure series: Flying Colors and Ship of the Line bring our online shop's total to seven in the series of nine exciting Hornblower novels. Two Penguin Classics history books have been added: one, Greek statesman Polybius's The Rise of the Roman Empire, in which he explains to his people how their world came to be dominated by Roman expansion; included are the temporary Roman setbacks at the hands of Hannibal. Titus Livius Livy came along a few years after Polybius to write The History of Rome from which ten chapters make up his The War With Hannibal, describing in detail the Second Punic War between Rome and Carthage. Together, these excellent translations of classic works of 2,000 years ago total more than 1,200 pages, fully indexed with numerous maps. In 1993, former Illinois Congressman Paul Findley wrote his now quite rare Deliberate Deceptions: Facing the Facts About the US-Israeli Relationship. To use the word "deception" to describe Jewish/Israeli control over the United States and its leaders is an understatement. Findley, who died in 2019 at 98, was a courageous and effective proponent of the Palestinians' cause, hated by the Jewish lobby for his stalwart opposition to and exposure of hateful Israeli perfidy. A "must have" in an Alliance member's personal library, Decep- tions is fully indexed, with an amazing bibliography and reading list. Theory of the Partisan by National Socialist economist Carl Schmidt, translated by C.J. Miller, is the 2020 edition of two powerful speeches translated from the original German, delivered by Schmidt in 1962, explaining the role of the civilian partisan compared to that of a regular army in a guerrilla war.

Back in September of 2015 National Vanguard posed an important question in an article by Martin Kerr titled "Which is the Best Translation of Mein Kampf?" Mr. Kerr is perhaps today's foremost expert qualified to answer that question, being the current Chief of Staff of the New Order, the successor organization to George Lincoln Rockwell's National Socialist White People's Party. Several editions of Mein Kampf were discussed in his piece, but recently Cosmotheist Books began selling a new translation of the classic work by Dr. Thomas Dalton, PhD. Mr. Kerr wrote on National Vanguard this month:

The Dalton translation of Mein Kampf is a major scholarly accomplishment, long overdue, and Dr. Dalton is to be commended for it... I wholeheartedly recommend this translation without hesitation, and encourage everyone to purchase his translation of Mein Kampf, even if they already have one or more other translations. Personally, I prefer the two-volume English/German parallel text edition. This allows me to easily compare the translation with the German original.

Our bookstore at cosmotheistchurch.org/shop currently carries 18 of Dr. Dalton's titles dealing with World War 2 history, Jews, and their Holocaust© fairy tales — and includes several editions Mein Kampf in both hardback and paperback.

Correspondence

Dear Cosmotheist Church: Enclosed find $110 for book order # ___, including shipping by Priority Mail. Thank you for all the work you do for our people. I am looking forward to turning 18 in the next 10 months when I will finally be eligible to join the National Alliance and can fully support you and our race. — D.R., California

Chairman Williams, As you wrote in the January BULLETIN the National Alliance's goals are clearly stated, present and future. Those two resignation letters you featured (from BB and MM) — something is not on the level with them. Could they perhaps be saboteur types who joined the Alliance, only to quit later to demoralize others? I've seen that type before. The Alliance has the program; It's up to the individual member what he does with it. When Dr. Pierce launched the National Alliance in 1974 he knew it would be a long journey, carried on long after his lifetime. Now it is up to us to continue what he started. Today — Tomorrow — The Future! Keep up the good work! — S.R., Virginia

Chairman Williams responds: Former members B.B., M.M., and Mrs. M.M. did not resign from our organization publicly, S.R., so your theory is wrong. I featured their letters in the BULLETIN to make the point for you and our other members that our Alliance is not for everyone, that those members did not carefully read What Is the National Alliance? if at all, as required prior to applying for membership. It was obvious to me that they were not willing to accept our straightforward program nor support its goals as described therein, so I wished them luck with their other groups and their social media. You have the proper attitude of a long-term Alliance member, something that they do not have. Perhaps they will realize that later.

Dear NA: I would like to take you up on the offer in the January BULLETIN to purchase Mr.

Also newly available: this new bumper sticker, with eye-catching promotion of our Life Rune. A copy is enclosed; please display it, and write the National Office for bulk quantities.

Massaro's book, Will Vaccines Be the End of Us?. $18 is enclosed. You are right, it is a timely book. I just got over COVID-19. I wasn't hospitalized, instead, soon after showing symptoms, I was given monoclonal antibodies and was well within a week. Thanks, — R.R., Washington

Chairman Williams responds: Good for you, R.R., for avoiding the vaccines and hospitalization. I declined vaccines, but, as you know, was hospitalized, sick as a dog for nearly three months, and am still recovering. I developed my antibodies the hard way. You are going to enjoy Mr. Massaro's book. I'm reading it now and find his 40 years of research into vaccinations gripping. I gave a copy to my doctor and to a couple of other like-minded booksellers with the hope they will also offer it.

Chairman Williams, I have been listening to old broadcasts of Dr. Pierce and now current broadcasts of Kevin Alfred Strom for the past couple of years and I have decided it's time to be more active. I've sat and listened to hundreds of hours of American Dissident Voices and read hundreds more of the great articles that have been written over the past couple of years on the National Vanguard website. It's time for me to get up and participate. "Don't be a shirker," as Dr. Pierce would say. I printed the application, filled it out, and was hoping to bring it to you in person since I've been thinking about coming to Tennessee for a while, but it will be mailed. I figure this is the first step. — T.V., California

Dear Chairman Williams, It was a pleasure speaking with you a couple of weeks ago. $500 is enclosed to cover our membership dues. Please send some more of the QR code Alliance stickers and we will post them around this part of northern California. I have to think that there are some like-minded Whites still here in this Communist-infested state. I hope your recovery is going well. My son and I look forward to visiting you and our Cosmotheist Community in June. Cheers! — J.H., California

Commentary by Chairman William White Williams

Expanding Alliance Property; Legal Update

I attended the public auction at our Johnson County, Tennessee, courthouse this month. Several properties whose owners were in arrears on their property taxes were up for purchase by competitive bids. Sixty or so people attended; I had the winning bid on a small parcel (contiguous with our 50-acre Alliance property) that can enhance the larger tract significantly.

More to follow on this acquisition later.

It was announced in the January BULLETIN that a settlement in the National Alliance's counterclaim against the co-administrators of deceased litigant John McLaughlin's estate — resulting from John McLaughlin v. The National Alliance, filed in 2016 — was being negotiated. Payment has now been received by our attorneys, but the terms of the settlement cannot be divulged due to the standard Non-Disclosure Agreement between the parties. It is nice to put this unfortunate six-and-a-half-year legal action behind us; the settlement comes at an opportune time as we continue to improve our property and infrastructure.

A much-needed 4x4 pickup truck has been donated by the National Office to our West Virginia campus. The Tennessee campus now has two 4x4 pickup trucks, a heavy Ford tractor with a half dozen attachments, and an all-terrain utility vehicle. National Office staff can handle most work here ourselves without hiring local contractors. We still welcome volunteer Alliance members to assist with our work here.

Book Warehouse Progress

Progress was made framing the end walls of our two-story Quonset hut warehouse (with the lumber we milled last year) during February, despite the difficulties of winter weather. Exterior doors and windows have been purchased and the building will soon be “dried in,” ready for interior build out and for utilities to be roughed in. Any members who will volunteer to help with this construction will be appreciated, if only for a few days or weeks.

Wolf Stoner’s “Civil War or Race War?”

To preface part two of Alliance member Stoner’s essay, I’d like to say a few words. Recall that in last month’s introduction to part one of this article, Wolf made clear it is theoretical, based on abstract questions and only intended for our benefit, not others’. His experience as a long-time Russian nationalist and now a dedicated National Alliance member provides for us a valuable perspective, theoretical or not. His criticism of Christianity here will shock many White Americans, but should not come as a big surprise to Alliance members. Though most of us, including Dr. Pierce and myself, were raised as Christians, we put those Christian beliefs behind us as we came to face reality as adults. One might say we took to heart advice found in the Bible scripture 1 Corinthians 13:11 (King James version): “When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child; but when I became a man, I put away childish things.”

When Dr. Pierce made me his first National Alliance Membership Coordinator in early 1992, I soon discovered a commentary he had written to our members ten years earlier in a 1982 BULLETIN. The entire text of that commentary can be read in the article “On Christianity” on National Vanguard. I made copies of that commentary back then, in those pre-Internet days, and mailed them to certain members and prospective members, letting them know what our Alliance policy was on that matter. It had been Dr. Pierce’s unvarnished honesty on taboo topics, especially on Christianity, that had attracted me to him. The Alliance had the much-needed spiritual basis that other groups I had looked into lacked.

The National Office has received a few complaints (fewer than expected) from members about what has been perceived as an anti-Christian bias in recent issues of National Vanguard (NV). One member has resigned...

The former member who belongs to the [nut-case evangelical Zionist Jerry Falwell’s] Moral Majority acted correctly in resigning from the Alliance, and the same applies to others: Any Alliance member who is also a member of a church or other Christian organization which supports racial mixing or Zionism should decide now where he stands, and he should then resign either from his church or from the Alliance.

In fact, the great majority of Alliance members who originally had some Christian church affiliation have already made their decisions and left the churches. Those members who continue to consider themselves Christians either have no church affiliation or belong to very small, independent churches which have pro-White doctrines...

I admired Dr. Pierce's courage for writing so honestly in the BULLETIN, knowing there could be blow-back from some members. But "fewer than expected" objected, as things turned out. I knew that others would feel as I did. Looking back now, 40 years later, with the much more dire situation our race faces today, I believe Dr. Pierce's views would have evolved to be more like those Wolf Stoner expresses here in the second half of his essay: no alliances with White Christian leaders, their organizations, or their members for that matter. The final line in Dr. Pierce's commentary was:

Such [nominal] Christians we can call our comrades and be proud to have in our ranks.

Those were the words of our founder four decades ago. At some point, and soon, Alliance members will agree that as advocates of total geographical race separatism, we will have no "pride" in having Christians of any stripe in our ranks — no use for those with universalist "spiritual baggage" as Dr. Pierce later described Christian beliefs. W. Civil War or Race War? (conclusion)

I am sure that the half-mad mainstream masses will constitute the main problem in the events that will ensue after the USA has collapsed.

What do I mean? Will there not be Black and Brown gangs who will terrorize and kill White people when all authority has vanished? Yes, that is sure to be. Millions of White people will die in these massacres; there are no doubts about this. But that is not the main problem. The main problem is that the Whites with poisoned minds are the majority; they are sure to transfer their delusions into the new historical epoch.

First of all, we need to divide the post-US White population into two groups: those who will die out without fighting and those who will fight. We have no interest in the first category, no one has. They are as good as dead. They will be the primary target of the roving Negro gangs, which would take from them the ultimate "reparations for slavery." But the second group — those who will fight — are of primary importance for us, because it will be they who will determine the future course of events.

Who are those people? What can we expect from them, and how many of them are really useful for our long-term goals?

We can conduct a rough analysis of these people by looking at the present militia/survivalist crowd and the whole spectrum of anti-System religious groups. These will be the main ideologically-conscious component among the post-US population that will be of interest to us.

At the very start, the most influential and powerful group will be former army and other armed services personnel who are closest to weapons stocks and who are sure to privatize those stocks after the USA is no more. This fact alone, possession of enormous amounts of weaponry, is sure to place those people in a special position. But there are very few among them who have any coherent vision of how society operates. These people have the ability to use weapons but would be unable to govern even a small community.

Therefore, they will have to join already-existing political and religious groups. It always happens. The disintegrating army of the fallen empire dissolves into natural ethnic components.

But the division of hardware is sure to be a violent affair, because everyone will want to grab the most. The textbook example of this process was Yugoslavia in 1991-92. But in America it would happen in a much more chaotic and violent fashion because of the more random distribution of the various ethnic enclaves. It would take time before those ethnic groups would be able to coalesce in definite areas. A majority of former military men would naturally join their respective ethnic enclaves. Negro soldiers would join Negro political bands, Mexican soldiers would go to Mexican gangs and so forth.

It is more or less clear about them, especially about Mexicans because they have a very definite territory which they reckon as their own.

Whites, on the other hand, are going to find themselves in a quandary because there will emerge plenty of various competing groups with different ideas. We should not expect that the massacres of White people by Black and Brown gangs would at once turn all White people into a racially conscious community; far from it. The mainstream majority is sure to preserve for some time all of their previous delusions and misconceptions. The first stage of the dissolution of the United States is sure to be accompanied by inflammation of all existing delusions — the most popular are sure to be ideas about the “constitution,” “founding fathers,” “Jefferson said this... Franklin said that...,” “our grandfathers fought Nazis...,” “all men are created equal...” and the like. All of those mental viruses have been incorporated into people’s minds by education and the media. These ideas, at least initially, will be the most popular, and the strongest political groups would espouse some combinations of these empty notions. It will be the same as with the Trump phenomenon, except with real fighting. They will even continue to try practicing the universalist nonsense about “racial equality.” The implicit default idea of such trashy popular movements would be the same “make America great again” nonsense we see today — the desire to return the lost “paradise” of the 1950s. Surely, they would follow the overall pattern of the Republican/conservative mindset, including its Jew-loving. And Jews are sure to exploit that flaw to the utmost, infiltrating the command structure of such movements. Regardless of any initial successes, these groups are sure to fail after the first major military engagements with the enemy; the main reason being that, although being numerically large, these movements would lack a strongly-motivated hard ethnic core.

Having allowed in people of various racial backgrounds, these groups would fall victim to conflicting racial interests, with Jews playing their usual game of inciting all against all.

Mainstream Whites would be the base of these movements. It follows that they would acquire the whole set of weaknesses of modern American society. The main trait of mainstream people is their inconstancy and lack of determination. Yes, they would be incensed by the chaos of state disintegration and loss of income, but they would not like the prospect of prolonged hard fighting. Therefore, after a few military engagements with big losses — this war will be Syrian-style, not like a drone computer game — the mainstream crowd would lose its initial enthusiasm and what only recently seemed to them to be a major movement would rapidly shrink to nothing.

The hard reality of war would rapidly snuff out all remaining vestiges of “tolerance,” “all men are created equal,” and other trashy ideas. After a few million Whites had been annihilated in ethnic cleansing in all parts of the former USA and tens of millions had become refugees, the former political delusions are sure to be cured. The above mentioned political movements would disintegrate into smaller but more radical groups that would fight between themselves and against the Black and Brown gangs that would have supremacy for some time. Eventually some competing radicalized groups would join belligerent Christian religious communities. Therefore, the Christian fundamentalist movement is sure to gain a very strong momentum at some stage of this war. Having failed in “making America great again,” some of the disenfranchised former White servicemen would coalesce around Christian groups.

But such groups are sure to have conflicting interests, which would prevent their unification. And that is for the good, because the main danger that could afflict the White People is to fall yet again under the dictatorship of Christian maniacs. But for some time the Christian component is going to be the dominant force among the resisting White population.

But “turning to Christ” isn’t going to solve the situation. Everything will rapidly deteriorate. After a few years of constant fighting, the whole social infrastructure would be in ruins; lack of food would result in famine and death on the Soviet Russian scale, unknown to America previously. Their entreaties to God’s mercy would be left unanswered, so the initial enthusiasm of Christian proselytes would then surely decrease. The initial momentum of the Christian groups would be lost within a few years’ time.

Then the time comes for real racial groups to ascend. Only after everyone else is swept aside by hard reality, will true leaders take firm hold on power over the remaining White people, who would be much more receptive to truth after having tasted the bitter fruits of delusion.

Natural selection would place on top those who really deserve it. The era of impostors would come to an inglorious end. However it would not mean an instant transition into a golden era. Not at all. Decades of a total war of annihilation would follow, with the resulting reduction of the remaining White population to a few millions. These will be a different people, having little in common with modern White Americans, except for their racial ancestry. These will be White people as they should be, cured of former delusions and vices.

Therefore, the ascent to the top of the social hierarchy should be natural; it will not be some kind of Bolshevik coup; it doesn't mean that we should idly wait in cellars before our time comes. Far from it.

The preparatory hard work should be done now, before events start. And after the events start to unravel with all the above mentioned stages, the conscious White people should quietly work on accruing genuine power. Although there are sure to be some dominant political groups that would control big chunks of territory and heavy weapons, there will be enough room for all kinds of lesser groups of all shades. It would be easy to operate under this overall cover of chaos. Only the major groups would be visible, but the minor ones would be concealed from hostile eyes due to the chaos. We should look at Syria to gain an understanding of what is to come (which will be on a much greater scale).

The main idea is that in the long run the ultimate winner is the one who adheres to the most logical ideas based on reality — and who is ready to stake everything he has to achieve victory. All the half-hearted populist leaders, the professional politicians (from 8 am to 5 pm) will break under the pressures of those events; they are too fond of their comfort. They will try to seek any accommodation with any enemy, only to preserve their personal well being. Therefore, all such creatures will gradually be identified and eliminated as a political force. Only the hard types of born fighters will remain at the top.

At some point, the radical, racial, non-Christian groups are sure to fall under hostile pressure from the above-mentioned dominant forces. They will try to eliminate, or at least to subjugate, these non-Christian groups.

However, here comes a very important principle: To survive in such an environment, the realists need to be very adroit and ruthless. Their lack of numbers should be compensated for by speed and determination. Balancing between competing groups will be the mode of survival. It requires the ability to make temporary alliances, including implicit ones; but never to become an appendage of the dominant group. Even more: Try to prevent any big group from acquiring too much influence, because, having attained much power, it would try to suppress all its competitors, including racial groups.

Therefore, any would-be Napoleon or Stalin should be eliminated before he rises too far. It is the only viable strategy when you do not have enough force to openly compete for power. This will be the method of lengthy attrition, the war of nerves, the ability to wait out all our enemies. A combination of patience, cold-blooded ruthlessness, unwavering adherence to our core principles, and political adroitness is sure to put such a racial group on top in the long run.

The above formulated idea raises the question of whether it is possible to make alliances with non-White groups or not. The White racial group by definition should not smear itself by open alliance with any non-White group. But then comes the demand of being adroit. It is mortal combat; kill or die. Therefore, anything is good that promotes the ultimate racial interests of the White race.

As was said above, the main enemy of the White Race is White trash infected with the universalist virus. Therefore, their elimination as a political force is a primary task — not Blacks, not Mexicans, but the Whites who have lost their sense of identity. They are the main problem, as was perfectly formulated by British racial-nationalist John Tyndall. Therefore, there should be no compunction about plotting and executing all possible plans leading to the dethroning of such groups from their unjustly-gained positions. And, having far fewer forces initially, White racial groups may be compelled to use the great potential of these non-White forces — but, again, as was said, without engaging in open alliances and military cooperation. As Lenin rightly noted once, "Revolution is not made with dirty hands."

White hands should never be smeared by close cooperation with non-Whites. At the same time, non-White factions could and should be used against universalist White groups, because, as is explained above, they are the main problem. And the racial groups should not help non-racial largely-White groups. The only condition for helping them is if they want to aid the non-Christian White racial group.

Russia's civil war of 100 years ago can provide valuable lessons for us as we contemplate the wars to come in the US. (Ivan Vladimirov, Flight of the Bourgeoisie from Novorossiysk in 1920)

Even if Black and Brown forces massacre some White settlement that was under the control of some conservative/Christian group, the radical White racial group should stand aside. It isn't their business if Christians are dying at the hands of those whom they acknowledge as their "brothers in Christ." Let them have it. No alliances at all with them! Either people join the racial group or they go their own way. And if they go their own way — they should not even be considered as belonging to our race. Their delusion is their downfall; everyone gets what he deserves.

Only this position can eventually allow incorporation of all remnants of the destroyed groups (Christian/conservative), whose former adherents would be glad to come under the command of the really strong people. The main idea is to fight as little as possible among ourselves, but use the results of fights between other groups. Again, the true racial group should never degrade itself by making formal alliances with any White universalist groups. This does not prevent using those groups to its own advantage if opportunity arises.

The main point being: Never cooperate with Christian/conservative groups; no alliances, no joint actions, no shared locations. Christianity is the main source of evil and its adherents should be considered enemies (as long as they continue to profess this creed).

To understand why these rules are so essential, we should always remember who destroyed White civilization in the first place: universalist, anti-racial White trash. Therefore, this trash is the main problem and the main enemy, not Black savages. The swarms of savages in our lands is the consequence, not the cause, of actions by the White traitors. The decision-making process should proceed from this basic fact. The most dangerous delusion would be to accept all biological Whites as members of our race and our future state. Never to be. The traitors and the progeny of the traitors should be dealt with as traitors. Nothing less would do. Either you are a racially conscious White or you are useless trash. There is plenty of time to decide where one belongs, but when that time runs out, there should be no mercy, no compunction.

Ideological purity is as important as racial purity. All ideas of "compromise," "middle ground," "freedom of choice," and other liberal drivel, are very harmful for the mental health of the race, therefore, should be weeded out as soon as they appear — before they gain strength and destroy the entire White community.

Again, I can safely predict that the main fighting would not be against Blacks and Browns but against universalist Whites, who would play a very prominent role for some time to come after the collapse of American/NATO world dominance. These Whites constitute the main threat to our race and to our ideas, therefore, it is they who deserve the most attention — above all others in the long run, even above Jews. White Civilization was brought down by White traitors like Churchill and Roosevelt, and by a multitude of collaborators who "believed" in every scoundrel-in-chief if he only paid enough dollars. Both these groups — universalist Christians and System collaborators — constitute the main problem of our race. Sometimes collaborators are even more dangerous than conscious traitors. Almost all security services that "combat White extremism" consist of such authoritarian collaborators. They are willing to hunt down their racial brothers in exchange for dollars and a Jewish pat on the back. Stupidity can't serve as exoneration, neither can the phrase "I just followed orders." People should answer for their actions, or inactions. And the time of final reckoning is coming ever closer.

Considering all the above-mentioned facts, we can safely postulate that the inevitable war that will ensue after the collapse of the United States of America will not be a race war, as has been envisioned by many previously, but a full-blown Russian-style civil war. And the main lesson of the civil war in Russia is that the most ruthless, determined, and adroit forces gained the upper hand. This historical fact should always be remembered, and our understanding of it should be applied in practical work.
